4. The Notice of Commencement, in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1, is hereby approved in all respects.

5. No later than seven (7) business days after the entry of this Order or as soon as reasonably practicable, the Debtors shall serve the Notice of Commencement on all parties listed on the Consolidated Creditor Matrix and all parties who were served notice of the Motion. 7. Except for governmental units, as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code, and certain other exceptions explicitly set forth in this Order, all Proofs of Claim must be filed so that they are actually received by Epiq Corporate Restructuring, LLC, the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent ("Epiq"), on or before November 21, 2022 at 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Central Time) (the "Claims Bar Date") at the addresses and in the form set forth herein.

8. The Claims Bar Date applies to all types of claims against the Debtors that arose or are deemed to have arisen before the Petition Date, except for claims specifically exempt from complying with the applicable Bar Dates (as defined herein) as set forth in this Order.

9. Except for governmental units, as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code, and certain other exceptions explicitly set forth in this Order, each entity that asserts a request for payment under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code (a “Section 503(b)(9) Request”) shall be required to file a Section 503(b)(9) Request with the Bankruptcy Court on or before November 21, 2022 at 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Central Time) (the “Section 503(b)(9) Bar Date”) at the addresses and in the form set forth herein.

10. 11. If Proofs of Claim and Section 503(b)(9) Requests are not received by Epiq or the Court, as applicable, by the applicable Bar Date, except in the case of certain exceptions explicitly set forth in this Order, the holders of the underlying claims shall be barred from asserting such claims against the Debtors and precluded from voting on any chapter 11 plan filed in the chapter 11 cases and/or receiving distributions from the Debtors on account of such claims in the chapter 11 cases.

I. Parties Required to File Proofs of Claim and Section 503(b)(9) Requests

14. The following entities holding claims against the Debtor arising before the Petition Date shall file Proofs of Claim or a Section 503(b)(9) Request, as applicable, on or before the applicable Bar Date:

- (b) any entity who believes that its claim is improperly classified in the Schedules or is listed in an incorrect amount and who desires to have its claim allowed in a different classification or amount other than that identified in the Schedules; and

- (c) any entity who believes that its claim against the Debtors is or may be an administrative expense pursuant to section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.

15. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Order, the following entities and categories of claimants shall not be required to file a Proof of Claim or Section 503(b)(9) Request by the Bar Date:

- (c) any entity whose claim has previously been allowed by a final order of the Court;
- (d) a current employee of the Debtors, for any claim related to wages, commission or benefits; provided that a current employee must submit a Proof of Claim by the Claims Bar Date for all other claims arising before the Petition Date, including claims (if any) for wrongful termination, discrimination, harassment, hostile work environment, and/or retaliation;

- (h) professionals engaged in these Chapter 11 Cases by (i) the Debtors or (ii) any official committee appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases (the “Creditor’s Committee”).

16. No entity wishing to assert an interest in the Debtors shall be required to file a proof of interest; provided that any such entity wishing to assert a claim, including related to its status as an equity holder, must file a Proof of Claim by the applicable Bar Date unless otherwise exempted by this Order.

II. Requirements of Proofs of Claim and Section 503(b)(9) Requests

17. To submit a Section 503(b)(9) Request, the claimant must file it with the Court before the Section 503(b)(9) Bar Date. Section 503(b)(9) Requests must (a) include the value of the goods delivered to and received by the Debtors in the 20 days prior to the Petition Date; (b) attach any documentation identifying the particular invoices for which the 503(b)(9) claim is being asserted; and (c) attach documentation of any reclamation demand made to the Debtors under section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (if applicable).

III. Procedures for Providing Notice of the Bar Dates

A. Mailing Bar Date Notices and Notice of Commencement

19. On or as soon as is reasonably practicable after the entry of this Order, the Debtors shall cause written notice of the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases and Bar Dates, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and Exhibit 3 (respectively, the “Notice of Commencement” and “Bar Date Notice”) to be served via first class mail to the following entities:

- (xii) all taxing authorities for the jurisdictions in which the Debtors maintain or conduct business;

- (xv) the consolidated thirty (30) largest unsecured creditors for the Debtors; and
- (xvi) such additional persons and entities deemed appropriate by the Debtors.

B. Supplemental Mailings

20. After the initial mailing of the Notice of Commencement and Bar Date Notices, the Debtors may, in their discretion, make supplemental mailings of notices or packages, including in the event that: (a) notices are returned by the post office with forwarding addresses; (b) certain parties acting on behalf of parties in interest decline to pass along notices to these parties and instead return their names and addresses to the Debtor for direct mailing, and (c) additional potential claimants become known after the initial mailing, or emailing, of the Notice of Commencement and Bar Date Notices. The Debtors may make supplemental mailings of the Notice of Commencement and Bar Date Notice in these and similar circumstances at any time up to 21 days in advance of the Bar Dates, with any such mailings or email being deemed timely and the Bar Dates being applicable to the recipient creditors

C. Publication of Bar Date Notice

21. The Debtors shall cause notice of the Bar Date Notice to be given by publication to creditors to whom notice by mail or email is impracticable, including creditors who are unknown or not reasonably ascertainable by the Debtors and creditors whose identities are known but whose addresses are unknown by the Debtors. Specifically, the Debtors shall cause the Notice of Commencement and Bar Date Notice (with such changes as may be required for publication) to be published once in the national edition of the New York Times within seven (7) days following entry of this Order or as soon as practicable thereafter and the form of the publication notice is hereby approved and authorized pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002(l) in substantially the form annexed hereto as Exhibit 4 (the “Publication Notice”).

IV. Consequences of Failure to File a Proof of Claim or Section 503(b)(9) Request

22. Any entity who is required (and not exempt) under this Order, but fails to file a Proof of Claim or Section 503(b)(9) Request in accordance with this Order on or before the applicable Bar Date shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from asserting such claim against the Debtors (or filing a Proof of Claim or Section 503(b)(9) Request with respect thereto) and the Debtors and their property shall be forever discharged from any and all indebtedness or liability with respect to or arising from such claim. Without limiting the foregoing sentence, any creditor asserting a claim entitled to priority pursuant to section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code that fails to file a Section 503(b)(9) Request in accordance with this Order shall not be entitled to any priority treatment on account of such Request pursuant to section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code, regardless of whether such claim is identified on the Schedules as not contingent, not disputed, and not liquidated.

23. Any such entity who is required (and not exempt) under this Order but fails to file a Proof of Claim or Section 503(b)(9) Request in accordance with this Order on or before the applicable Bar Date shall be prohibited from voting to accept or reject any chapter 11 plan filed in this chapter 11 case, participating in any distribution in the chapter 11 case on account of such claim, or receiving further notices regarding such claim.

V. Miscellaneous

24. This Order, the Notice of Commencement, and the Bar Date Notice shall be prominently displayed on the Debtors' case website: <https://dm.epiq11.com/ComputeNorthHoldings>.

25. To the extent a Proof of Claim is filed with the Clerk of the Court instead of Epiq, the Clerk shall, by using Epiq's overnight express account, transmit to Epiq any paper proof of claim that it receives to Epiq. For the avoidance of doubt, the Clerk need not physically transfer any claim it receives electronically to Epiq.

26. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Order shall be deemed (a) an admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against a Debtor entity under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable non-bankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any claim; (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion or a finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim or other priority claim; (e) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder; (f) a request to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance of property of the Debtors' estates; or

(i) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in the Motion are valid and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens.

27. The Court finds and determines that the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) are satisfied and that the relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm.

28. Notice of the Bar Dates as set forth in this Order and in the manner set forth herein (including, but not limited to, the Notice of Commencement, the Bar Date Notice, the Publication Notice, and any supplemental notices that the Debtors may send from time to time) constitutes adequate and sufficient notice of each of the Bar Dates and satisfies the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Bankruptcy Local Rules.

29. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

30. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Order in accordance with the Motion.

31. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the enforcement of this Order.

32. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Order in accordance with the Motion.

33. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the enforcement of this Order.

Notice of Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Case10/20

For the debtor listed above, a case has been filed under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. An order for relief has been entered.

This notice has important information about the case for creditors and debtors, including information about the meeting of creditors and deadlines. Read both pages carefully.

The filing of the case imposed an automatic stay against most collection activities. This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the debtor or the debtor's property. For example, while the stay is in effect, creditors cannot sue, assert a deficiency, repossess property, or otherwise try to collect from the debtor. Creditors cannot demand repayment from the debtor by mail, phone, or otherwise. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees.

Confirmation of a chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debt. A creditor who wants to have a particular debt excepted from discharge may be required to file a complaint in the bankruptcy clerk's office within the deadline specified in this notice. (See line 11 below for more information.)

To protect your rights, consult an attorney. All documents filed in the case may be inspected at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed below or through PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records at <https://pacer.uscourts.gov>).

The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice.

Do not file this notice with any proof of claim or other filing in the case.

7. Proof of claim deadline	Deadline for filing proof of claim: November 21, 2022 at 5:00 PM (CT)	Deadline for governmental units to file proof of claim: March 21, 2023 at 5:00 PM (CT)
	Deadline for filing proof of claim on account of the Debtors' rejection of executory contracts or unexpired leases. [Not yet set. Notice of deadline, if any, will be filed on the Court's docket.]
	A proof of claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. A proof of claim form is enclosed with this notice or may be obtained at www.uscourts.gov , https://dm.epiq11.com/ComputeNorthHoldings , or any bankruptcy clerk's office. Your claim will be allowed in the amount scheduled unless: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ your claim is designated as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated; ■ you file a proof of claim in a different amount; or ■ you receive another notice. If your claim is not scheduled or if your claim is designated as disputed , contingent , or unliquidated , you must file a proof of claim or you might not be paid on your claim. You may file a proof of claim even if your claim is scheduled. Once the schedules are filed, you may review the schedules at the bankruptcy clerk's office or online at pacer.uscourts.gov or https://dm.epiq11.com/ComputeNorthHoldings . Secured creditors retain rights in their collateral regardless of whether they file a proof of claim. Filing a proof of claim submits a creditor to the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court, with consequences a lawyer can explain. For example, a secured creditor who files a proof of claim may surrender important nonmonetary rights, including the right to a jury trial.
8. Exception to discharge deadline The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive a complaint and any required filing fee by the following deadline.	If § 523(c) applies to your claim and you seek to have it excepted from discharge, you must start a judicial proceeding by filing a complaint by the deadline stated below Deadline for filing the complaint: [N/A]
9. Creditors with a foreign address	If you are a creditor receiving notice mailed to a foreign address, you may file a motion asking the court to extend the deadlines in this notice. Consult an attorney familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have any questions about your rights in this case.
10. Filing a Chapter 11 bankruptcy case	Chapter 11 allows debtors to reorganize or liquidate according to a plan. A plan is not effective unless the court confirms it. You may receive a copy of the plan and a disclosure statement telling you about the plan, and you may have the opportunity to vote on the plan. You will receive notice of the date of the confirmation hearing, and you may object to confirmation of the plan and attend the confirmation hearing. Unless a trustee is serving, the debtor will remain in possession of the property and may continue to operate its business.

11. Discharge of debts	Confirmation of a chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debts, which may include all or part of your debt. See 11 U.S.C. § 1141(d). A discharge means that creditors may never try to collect the debt from the debtor except as provided in the plan. If you want to have a particular debt owed to you excepted from the discharge and § 523(c) applies to your claim, you must start a judicial proceeding by filing a complaint and paying the filing fee in the bankruptcy clerk's office by the deadline.

These instructions and definitions generally explain the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases that debtors do not file voluntarily, exceptions to these general rules may apply. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the bankruptcy process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000 imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571

Understand the terms used in this form

Administrative expense: Generally, an expense that arises after a bankruptcy case is filed in connection with operating, liquidating, or distributing the bankruptcy estate. 11 U.S.C. § 503.

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. Use the debtor's name and case number as shown in the bankruptcy notice you received. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (13).

Evidence of perfection: Evidence of perfection of a security interest may include documents showing that a security interest has been filed or recorded, such as a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, or financing statement.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Priority claim: A claim within a category of unsecured claims that is entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. § 507(a). These claims are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims are paid. Common priority unsecured claims include alimony, child support, taxes, and certain unpaid wages.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the amount of debt the debtor owed to a creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Secured claim under 11 U.S.C. § 506(a): A claim backed by a lien on particular property of the debtor. A claim is secured to the extent that a creditor has the right to be paid from the property before other creditors are paid. The amount of a secured claim usually cannot be more than the value of the particular property on which the creditor has a lien. Any amount owed to a creditor that is more than the value of the property normally may be an unsecured claim. But exceptions exist; for example, see 11 U.S.C. § 1322(b) and the final sentence of 1325(a).

Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment may be a lien.

Setoff: Occurs when a creditor pays itself with money belonging to the debtor that it is holding, or by canceling a debt it owes to the debtor.

Uniform claim identifier: An optional 24-character identifier that some creditors use to facilitate electronic payment.

Unsecured claim: A claim that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be unsecured in part to the extent that the amount of the claim is more than the value of the property on which a creditor has a lien.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.

As used in this Notice, the term “claim” means, as to or against the Debtors and in accordance with section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code: (a) any right to payment, whether or not such right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured or unsecured; or (b) any right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance if such breach gives rise to a right to payment, whether or not such right to an equitable remedy is reduced to judgment, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, secured or unsecured.

c. Section 503(b)(9) Bar Date. Except as expressly set forth in this Notice, all entities (except for governmental units and other entities exempt from filing Section 503(b)(9) Requests under the Order), each entity that asserts a request for payment under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code (a “Section 503(b)(9) Request”) shall be required to file a Section 503(b)(9) Request with the Bankruptcy Court on or before November 21, 2022 at 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Central Time).

- (a) any entity whose claim against the Debtors is not listed in the Debtors’ Schedules or is listed as contingent, unliquidated or disputed if such entity desires to participate in these Chapter 11 Cases or share in any distribution in these Chapter 11 Cases;
- (b) any entity who believes that its claim is improperly classified in the Schedules or is listed in an incorrect amount and who desires to have its claim allowed in a different classification or amount other than that identified in the Schedules; and
- (c) any entity who believes that its claim against the Debtors is or may be an administrative expense pursuant to section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.

III. WHO IS NOT REQUIRED TO FILE A PROOF OF CLAIM OR § 503(B)(9) REQUEST

Some parties are not required to file Proofs of Claim or Section 503(b)(9) Requests. The Court may, however, enter one or more orders at a later time requiring creditors to take certain actions for some kinds of the claims and set related deadlines. If the Court enters such an order, you will receive notice of it. The following entities holding claims that would otherwise be subject to the Bar Dates need not file Proofs of Claim or Section 503(b)(9) Requests:

- (a) any entity that already has filed a signed Proof of Claim against the applicable Debtor(s) with Epiq in a form substantially similar to Official Form 410;
- (b) any entity whose claim is listed on the Schedules if: (i) the claim is not scheduled by the Debtors as any of “disputed,” “contingent,” or “unliquidated;” and (ii) such entity agrees with the amount, nature, and priority of the claim as set forth in the Schedules;
- (c) any entity whose claim has previously been allowed by a final order of the Court;
- (d) a current employee of the Debtors, for any claim related to wages, commission or benefits; provided that a current employee must submit a Proof of Claim by the

- (h) professionals engaged in these Chapter 11 Cases by (i) the Debtors or (ii) any official committee appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases (the “Creditor’s Committee”).

Notice of Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Case

For the debtor listed above, a case has been filed under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. An order for relief has been entered.

This notice has important information about the case for creditors and debtors, including information about the meeting of creditors and deadlines. Read both pages carefully.

The filing of the case imposed an automatic stay against most collection activities. This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the debtor or the debtor's property. For example, while the stay is in effect, creditors cannot sue, assert a deficiency, repossess property, or otherwise try to collect from the debtor. Creditors cannot demand repayment from the debtor by mail, phone, or otherwise. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees.

Confirmation of a chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debt. A creditor who wants to have a particular debt excepted from discharge may be required to file a complaint in the bankruptcy clerk's office within the deadline specified in this notice. (See line 11 below for more information.)

To protect your rights, consult an attorney. All documents filed in the case may be inspected at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed below or through PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records at <https://pacer.uscourts.gov>).

The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice.

Do not file this notice with any proof of claim or other filing in the case.

Deadline for filing proof of claim on account of the Debtors' rejection of executory contracts or unexpired leases:

[Not yet set. Notice of deadline, if any, will be filed on the Court's docket.]

A proof of claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. A proof of claim form is enclosed with this notice or may be obtained at www.uscourts.gov, <https://dm.epiq11.com/ComputeNorthHoldings>, or any bankruptcy clerk's office. Your claim will be allowed in the amount scheduled unless: your claim is designated as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated; you file a proof of claim in a different amount; or you receive another notice. If your claim is not scheduled or if your claim is designated as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, you must file a proof of claim or you might not be paid on your claim. You may file a proof of claim even if your claim is scheduled. Once the schedules are filed, you may review the schedules at the bankruptcy clerk's office or online at pacer.uscourts.gov or <https://dm.epiq11.com/ComputeNorthHoldings>. Secured creditors retain rights in their collateral regardless of whether they file a proof of claim. Filing a proof of claim submits a creditor to the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court, with consequences a lawyer can explain. For example, a secured creditor who files a proof of claim may surrender important nonmonetary rights, including the right to a jury trial.

Exception to discharge deadline: The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive a complaint and any required filing fee by the following deadline. If § 523(c) applies to your claim and you seek to have it excepted from discharge, you must start a judicial proceeding by filing a complaint by the deadline stated below

Deadline for filing the complaint: [N/A]

Creditors with a foreign address: If you are a creditor receiving notice mailed to a foreign address, you may file a motion asking the court to extend the deadlines in this notice. Consult an attorney familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have any questions about your rights in this case.

Filing a Chapter 11 bankruptcy case: Chapter 11 allows debtors to reorganize or liquidate according to a plan. A plan is not effective unless the court confirms it. You may receive a copy of the plan and a disclosure statement telling you about the plan, and you may have the opportunity to vote on the plan. You will receive notice of the date of the confirmation hearing, and you may object to confirmation of the plan and attend the confirmation hearing. Unless a trustee is serving, the debtor will remain in possession of the property and may continue to operate its business.

Discharge of debts: Confirmation of a chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debts, which may include all or part of your debt. See 11 U.S.C. § 1141(d). A discharge means that creditors may never try to collect the debt from the debtor except as provided in the plan. If you want to have a particular debt owed to you excepted from the discharge and § 523(c) applies to your claim, you must start a judicial proceeding by filing a complaint and paying the filing fee in the bankruptcy clerk's office by the deadline.
